

Please do not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. It is wonderful not having telephone solicitors calling my home at inappropriate times trying to sell me something I will never buy. I used to make it a point never to buy anything from such solicitations, now I am not bothered with them thanks to Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. Thanks for listening.
...Jonathon M Benson